The Revelation of Jesus Christ

Preface<sup>1</sup>

This is a transcription<sup>2</sup> of the revelation of Jesus Christ on December 25, 1989, which was November 28 according to Chinese lunar calendar. The ceremony was held at the Providence Maitreya Missionary Institute and presided over by Great Master Master<sup>3</sup> Wang.

Transcription

Time passes by quickly, and it is Christmas Day again.
Jingle bells! Jingle bells! Bells sing joyfully.
Exhilarating atmosphere has emerged in the world although it is near dusk.
In red suit, red hat, and with white whiskers, Santa Claus carries a knapsack on his back.
Reindeers draw the sled forward at top speed.
Santa brings everyone expectation and benediction.
Wish Dao is propagated prosperously and you all have a glorious future.

<sup>1</sup> The original pamphlet of which this online version is a copy was published by 慈光出版社. It has been converted to an online format by Happy Buddha Precious Temple. In the process, we edited the text to correct any errors, changed the spelling of words to maintain consistency throughout, and added footnotes to provide explanations where needed.

<sup>2</sup> The revelation was transcribed during a “sandwriting” ceremony in which the spirit or spirits write words in a sandbox through two mediums (one holding the writing stick and the other announcing the words that are written). In this revelation, another saint/angel precedes Jesus in the revelation.

I, Santa Claus, the Occidental Happy Angel, with the Heavenly Decree, have the honor to proceed to the altar in attendance on Jesus. After arrival worship to God, I shall also give my regards to all of you worthies here.

Today, celebrations of Christmas are all over in and under heaven. People are filled with joy and the affairs of Dao are prosperous. In this wonderful period of time, hurry up in the propagation of Dao!

With a compassionate heart and kindly smile, send happiness to every corner in the world.

All religions will end in Dao with boundless reverence.

I shall withdraw now and stand by the altar with joy.

Ha-ha!<sup>4</sup> Pause.

(The attendants offered welcome worship to Santa Claus.)

Time passes by like the flow of water.

Lively atmosphere of Christmas is all over the world.

People welcome the coming of spring with joy.

Wish everyone a Merry Christmas!

Dao was disseminated like a strike of light.

All religions will end in their origin.

The gospel of the Last Salvation is being made known to the world.

Savior Maitreya has great power to rescue all mankind.

I, Jesus Christ, bestowed with the Heavenly Decree from God, came to the Orient and entered the Holy House to pay respect to God first and to meet you worthies here. With boundless joy in this wonderful Christmas, offering season’s greetings to each other, we got together here for divine affinity and to talk about the propagation of Dao.

<sup>4</sup> This is not a laugh, but just one of the ways Buddhas and Saints punctuate the end of a section of sandwriting.

All outgrowths will come back to their origin.
And it has been confirmed in every possible way.
Having received Dao, you worthies are really fortunate.
You should seize every opportunity to propagate Dao at full speed.
I hold the pen to give my revelation with joy.

Ha-ha! Pause.

(The attendants offered welcome worship to Jesus Christ.)

Religions are not Dao since they just look on the nonessentials.
Sticking to the visible and tangible stubbornly never leads to Truth.
Thousands of sutras are obstacles to realizing Truth.
Just memorizing scriptures, people are in a trap of words.

It is a pity that the whole world is in chaos approaching the Last Day.

People are losing morals and virtues.
Where can humanity, justice, and tenderness be found?
There is little fraternity and compassionate feeling.

Not understanding the goal and the origin of religions, Christians are all muddled.
Perceiving the visible and tangible as Truth, people are looking for Truth out of themselves.

Who realizes that God is within each of us?
By order of God, I laid the foundation for the development of Christianity to open up a path for Dao.
Although I gave many hints and revelations, it was not time yet to disclose the direct way back to Heaven.

The passage of Dao could be in the open or in secret at different times.

Dao was not available until now that God has allowed it to be disseminated to the general public.

The timing was implied and shown by all kinds of abnormal phenomena.

It is impossible to comprehend Truth just from scriptures.

It always holds true that cultivation must be harassed and tested by devils.

Even with countless obstacles from Heaven and Earth, and innumerable hardship and slanders, I sowed the seeds of virtue and assembled people together.

Disciples gradually grew in numbers and promulgated the gospel piously.

Pray to God for wisdom, enlightenment, and peace, and to restore the original nature.

Meet God with a pure heart like that of a new-born baby.

See Truth with one's divine nature.

The five major religions are all from the same Truth and Origin.
It is Dao that is the ultimate supremacy.

Muddled Christians broke up into many factions.

Disputations and battles were triggered.

There were even religious wars which caused lots of killings and tragedies.

It is obvious that religions cannot stop people from deteriorating.

People's minds are getting worse and worse.

The greatest calamity ever will come very soon.

The message about the Last Day of the world was revealed a long time ago.

It is a pity that the time is limited while the situations are extremely urgent.

Looking down at the desolation all around on earth, I am deeply grieved.

On this Christmas Day of the year, my disciples are celebrating with all kinds of excitements.
Singing and dancing with joy, people indulge themselves in sensual pleasures.
Do they know there are dangers behind?
Do they recognize the approaching of the greatest calamity ever?
Killing animals to satisfy the greed for tasty food, people are committing serious sins.

The Last Judgment is coming.
God will not, in the slightest degree, be swayed by any personal considerations.
Everyone will suffer the consequences of all their deeds accumulated since the creation of the world.
All evil beings will be filtered out and punished.
It is bad to live in this world in this period of time.
But there is a big fortune for all of you.
Congratulations to you worthies since you all have attained Dao, recognized Truth, and realized the true gospel.
God has granted a slim chance of survival.
Dao is the beacon, the light leading back to Heaven.

All of you are fortunate to be born in China where Dao has been propagated, since you have sown the seeds of virtue in the past.
I feel so sorry that many good people in the West still have not received Dao yet.

Thanks to the grace of God, Dao is being propagated toward the Occident.
The gospel of Savior Maitreya will be spread to all the countries.
You worthies here also help accomplish this grand project.
In the end, Dao will be known all over the world.
This holy mission is extremely honorable.

All of you have the divine affinity to contribute to the mission.

Be sure not to miss this golden opportunity.
It always holds true that there would be lots of obstacles in practicing Dao.
A pious mind can only be revealed through probation and ordeal.

Thanks to God's boundless compassion and mercy, the development of modern science and technology makes people's daily life more comfortable and enjoyable.
It also makes the propagation of Dao much easier.
It is like you are practicing Dao and self-cultivating in Heaven.

Everyone should seize this last opportunity.
Fully utilize one's wisdom and talents to help disseminate Dao.
Recognize the invaluable treasure within oneself, which is the invisible and intangible God—Dao that dwells in each of us.
There is no need to strive for Truth from religious scriptures outside of oneself any more.
The more one depends on scriptures, the more confused one becomes, and the harder it is to recognize one's divine self.

I saw that all Christians were lost.
Though they are familiar with the Bible, they do not comprehend Truth.
They memorize the sentences and interpret the words but few earnestly practice accordingly.

I resurrected on the Cross, which was an extreme implication for Truth.
However, lambs were still lost on the way.
Christians still carried the visible and tangible Cross.
They did not recognize their own Jehovah.
Therefore their physical bodies deviated from God and fell.

I felt so sorry for them and wanted to correct it several times, but it was not time yet to do so.

God arranged it all, and I obeyed the Heavenly Decree accordingly.

Today Dao is being propagated toward the West.

Worthies here also help to save God's children, who are all waiting to be rescued.

Only by receiving Dao can they be exempted from the cycle of life and death.

All other ways still end up leading to hell.

They must follow Dao which is the most glorious of all.

Lambs now have a chance to ride on the life boats.

Receiving Dao will guide them straight back to Heaven.

Then repent all the sins of the past.

Paradise will be right in front of them.

I, Jesus, did missionary work, the goal of which was to spread the teachings of compassion and love.

However, it was impossible to revive without Dao.

I hope all my disciples sober up quickly.

Receive Dao and recognize the divine self.

Revive your own God—the original nature.

God is not far away; God is within one's true self.

Put down the scriptures and teachings in the Bible.

Sweep away all the obstacles and limitations of words and languages.

Truth, the invisible sutra, is the gift from God with which we all came equipped.

As long as you recognize God within yourself, you can reach eternity instantly.

I see that time slips away and is not waiting for you.

It is extremely urgent.

So, don't hold back and hesitate any more.

Do hurry up and look for Dao and Grand Masters.

Only by doing so can you return back to your home—Heaven.

I am anxiously expecting that those disciples of mine with good deeds can attain Dao as soon as possible.

I hope you worthies here help spread these messages for me.

Propagate Truth and the gospel all over the world.

It is now that thousands of religions are going to end in Dao, and all outgrowths are coming back to the origin.

Then paradise and ultimate harmony will come afterwards.

Having the affinity to assemble together tonight, I am very happy.

You worthies are all sincere and earnest.

Everyone is filled with Holy Spirit and joy.

God's mercy is so great, which you all enjoy and benefit from.

All of you assembled here in Providence Maitreya Missionary

Institute to study Truth which can open the door of your heart.

Restore the wisdom and reveal the original nature.

Nothing is more precious than this.

Don't miss this golden opportunity to keep improving yourself to repay the kindness of God.

The students from Providence Maitreya Missionary Institute have to undertake a significant task—to ride with the wind and break the waves in the propagation of Dao.

You may stand up and stop bowing.

I hope all of you are of one spirit and help the dissemination of Dao.

Be of high ambitions without any hesitation or timidity.

Be brave yet cautious.

Help accomplish the Last Salvation.

This class is extremely honorable and sacred, because Maitreya himself supervises it.

All Buddhas also superintend, help with the progress of the class, and clear up your thinking.
The greatest event coming is extremely marvelous.
God and human beings work together with extreme glory.
I was also instructed to help with this grand project in secret.
You worthies should pull out the best of your talents and abilities.

Enforce and dignify the Holy House manners.
With the heart sutra, all religions will end in Dao.
The time for Savior Maitreya to unify the world will come very soon.
He will lead the entire world into a new era.
All people working with one spirit can speed up the propagation of Dao.
Fulfill one's own divine duty to repay the grace of God.
Totally devoting himself to rescuing God's children, Great Master
Wang is very sincere and honest.
You may stand up and stop bowing.
I will definitely help with the affairs of Dao in secret.
To save all beings of the three realms<sup>5</sup> is an extremely great responsibility.
Being touched by your sincerity, all Buddhas will also help you.
Always on errands for Dao without complaints, you wear down yourself just for saving people.
Being of divine nature and united with the Holy Spirit, you enlighten people with the heart sutra wherever you go.
Perceiving Truth and acting accordingly, you set up a model for people to follow.
Setting an example is superior to a silver tongue.
God knows all that you have done.
Being able to take disadvantages and endure humiliations is extremely honorable.
You should take good care of yourself.

---

<sup>5</sup> Humans, devas (spirits of temporal heaven), and spirits of the underworld.

Do not overwork yourself or take too much hardship.
God will back you up for everything.
All Buddhas will give you support in every possible way as well.
Relax and don't be worried.
Keep a joyful mind and be fulfilled with Dao all the time.

I also wish you worthies here to bestir yourselves.
Do not miss this precious opportunity to serve God, especially those masters with heavy responsibilities, since you are the representatives of Grand Masters and were endowed with the Heavenly Decree.
The gospel of the Last Salvation shall be spread all over the world by you.
And you shall help establish the paradise for the next new era.

We celebrated Christmas together this evening.
I give my blessings to the affairs of Dao.
The New Year is around the corner.
Everyone should start carrying out his/her aspirations from now on.
Working hard now yields an abundant harvest in the future.

If you attain Dao and cultivate yourself with sincerity, God will never ignore you and it will certainly pay off.
Work cooperatively with one spirit and come back to Heaven together.
The paradise with ultimate peace and harmony will eventually come true.
The above was a brief revelation I gave this evening.
Do you have other things to ask?

Pause.

(Great Master Wang asked Jesus to give his mercy and help with the propagation of Dao as much as possible...)

The time for Dao to be disseminated to the whole world has come.

With God's compassion, the gospel is going to be spread to all the countries.

Lambs are all waiting to be rescued from the abyss of misery especially those in the West.

Pray to God for the prosperity of Dao.

I certainly will assist in every possible way.

You can leave your worries behind and just do your best.

Rush ahead and propagate Dao to virgin lands.

The advance of science and technology changes the world and material civilization rapidly.

People are after extreme pleasure and satisfactions and act against their conscience.

This is the trend of the world and is not easy to change.

We should be patient and tender, and make every effort to correct it.

It is very difficult to convince people of the value of Dao by preaching religious scriptures and explaining their meanings.

The only way to persuade people is by the way we act.

Show people how much we have changed and improved from practicing Dao.

Convincing and impressing people by our kindness and the virtue of God is better than any amount of preaching.

This is the glory of the heart sutra.

I can reassure you of my hearty assistance in the affairs of Dao.

The union of God and human being is a wonder.

God is extremely powerful without any limitation.

Acting according to God's will shall definitely lead to success.

Be sure not to parade one's own ability and superiority.

Be humble, then people will be polite and show their respect to our mission.

I am sure all worthies here also understand it.

Reveal your divine nature to help spread the gospel of Dao.

The purpose of this Truth Studying Class is to open the door of your heart.

To really comprehend Truth is to put it into actions.

Repay the grace of God and set up goals with your best efforts.

I will give my assistance for sure in every possible way.

Don't worry and be relaxed.

I wish all worthies good health and a brilliant future.

Hold on to your divine nature for every moment.

Restore your pure and true nature like that of a newborn baby.

The revelation for this evening ends here.

Pray to God for boundless peace and joy.

I worship God with reverence, say good-bye to you worthies, and leave for Heaven.

Ha-ha! Withdraw.
